

National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) Funding Opportunities Webinar

Date: Friday, February 5th, 2021

Time: 2:00 - 3:30 PM

Location: Virtual Event*

REGISTER HERE

* This webinar will be held via Zoom. Registrants will receive a Zoom link within 24 hours of the webinar.

Open to FSU faculty and FAMU, this webinar will cover different funding opportunities at the National Endowment for the Humanities. Our special guest and Program Officer for the NEH, Meaghan Brown will walk through some select NEH funding opportunities and be available for a Q&A.

About the Speaker: Meaghan Brown is a Program Officer at the National Endowment for the Humanities. Brown received her PhD in the History of Text Technologies from Florida State University in 2013. Before coming to NEH, she was the digital production editor at the Folger Shakespeare Library. She has also served as managing editor for the Papers of the Bibliographical Society of America. Her research, which has included studies of early modern printers and the role of special collections in academic research, has appeared in Archives Journal, Papers of the Bibliographical Society of Canada, Book History, and Computers and Composition Online.

This workshop is brought to you by the Office of Research Development at Florida State University.

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

OFFICE OF RESEARCH
DEVELOPMENT